Conflicts of Interest

What is a conflict of interest?

VCU Health Continuing Education considers financial and non-financial relationships to create actual conflicts of interest in CE when individuals have both a relationship with an ineligible company and the opportunity to affect the content of CE about the products or services of that company. An ineligible company is one whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing health care products used by or on patients.

Where is the conflict?

When the provider's interests are aligned with those of an ineligible company, the interests of the provider are in "conflict" with the interests of the public. The interests of the people controlling CE must always be aligned with what is in the best interests of the public.

How do these circumstances create a conflict of interest?

The potential for increasing the value of the relationship with the ineligible company creates an incentive to influence the content of the CE – an incentive to insert commercial bias. Commercial bias is prohibited in CE.

Mitigating COIs for Individuals in their Role as Planning Committee Members

Select one of the following options:

- □ The above named individual recused him/herself from planning content in the conflicted area.
- □ The individual divested him/herself of the financial relationship with the ineligible company.
- \Box A peer review will be performed to mitigate potential COI.
- \Box The individual's role will be limited to aspects not related to the declared conflict.
- □ The individual will be paired with a non-conflicted individual to ensure commercial bias is not present.
- \Box All aspects related to the individual's role will be reviewed by the appropriate CE review committee.
- □ The individual's conflict has been deemed immitigable, and they will be considered ineligible to plan, present, author, or review any aspect of this activity.
