

Tracy Parker is currently the Pharmacist in Charge at the VCU health South Richmond Pharmacy. She is responsible for leading a team of pharmacist and pharmacy technicians in the day to day operation of an ambulatory pharmacy. The pharmacy fills on average 150 prescriptions a day.

She is a preceptor for the VCU School of Pharmacy and helps in the training of 3rd year Medical Students from VCU School of Medicine.

She has an MBA and uses her business skills to help manage the day to day operation of an ambulatory pharmacy.

Tracy is a 17 year Breast Cancer survivor. She is empathetic and compassionate to her patients and coworkers.

One of her favorite quotes is “things look different depending on where you are setting”.