2019 VCU Comprehensive Stroke Symposium

Event Information

Overview

The VCU Annual Comprehensive Stroke Symposium is committed to advancing the knowledge of nurses, allied health professionals, advanced practice providers and other healthcare professionals in recent concepts and advancements in the care of patients with cerebrovascular disease. As an academic tertiary referral center, VCU cares for complex stroke patients, pediatrics to adults, throughout the continuum of care from emergency care to in-patient rehabilitation and out-patient stroke clinics. This one-day conference will focus on connecting neuroanatomy with the neurologic assessment, legal considerations of electronic health record documentation and advancements in caring for patients with complex communication needs.

Target Audience

Nurses, allied health providers, physicians, advanced practice providers and other healthcare professionals who participate in the care of stroke patients.

Learning Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational event, participants will:

- Self-report knowledge gain related to the connection between neuroanatomy and their clinical experiences, and strengthen their assessment skills and pathology recognition.
- Self-report their intent to change their practice related to electronic record documentation.
- Correctly analyze their patients' clinical status to determine the need to activate a stroke alert.
- Self-report an intent to change practice by applying evidence based communication strategies for patients with complex communication needs.

Continuing Education

Nursing: Up to 6.75 Contact Hours. VCU Health is approved as a provider of continuing nursing education by the Virginia Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
