Course description

Nursing Professional Development (NPD) practitioners and other healthcare educators are transforming professional practice to improve patient and health outcomes. Attend this year's virtual Pathways to Knowledge Conference to ignite your passion, inspire yourself and others, and innovate your practice. Leave empowered, engaged, and energized to transform the future of professional development.

Target audience

This activity is designed for nurses and others involved in the development of health care professionals.

Course objectives

At the conclusion of this activity, learners will be able to:

- Develop strategies that are essential for successful nursing professional development (NPD) practice in the multisite setting.
- Consider what infrastructures are necessary to support, extend, and strengthen NPD practice and impact, particularly in the multisite environment.
- Make use of the Single Preceptor Model, Married State Preceptor Model, and the Team Preceptor Model.
- Begin using simulation/computer-based case studies as a strategy for developing the competencies of preceptors.
- Implement preceptor documentation tools based on best practices.

Exhibit and poster information

Exhibits and posters will be available to view in the virtual exhibit hall at any time throughout the conference. Exhibitors and poster presenters will be available to interact live with attendees via videoconference at designated times during the conference. See agenda for live interaction times.
